It is our honor and our privilege to stand in partnership with Western Presbyterian Church as we continue our mission. We’re grateful that Clark Talkington and Jennifer Druliner continue to serve on the Miriam’s Kitchen Board of Directors. Mallory Price finished her term as a Presbyterian Church USA Young Adult Volunteer, sharing her placement between Miriam’s Kitchen and Western Presbyterian Church and now Mara Sawdry is our 2nd YAV – sharing her placement with Miriam’s and The Office of Public Witness.

2015 was a year of growth and change for Miriam’s Kitchen. However, it was a year in which our programs grew faster than our revenue, so we had to exercise some fiscal restraint. It was a year that saw some expected, and unexpected, staff changes. And it was a year when we developed a strategic plan to carry us from 2016-2018 and to help us achieve our mission to end chronic homelessness in Washington, D.C.

We believe that our mission to end chronic homelessness in Washington, D.C. serves as an extension of values shared by Miriam’s Kitchen and Western Presbyterian Church: that all human beings deserve to be treated with dignity; that communities of belonging create the greatest opportunities to do good; and that with the proper support, we are all capable of creating positive change in our lives and in the lives of those around us.

Strategic Operations

During this fiscal year, we developed and finalized a strategic plan that will carry us forward for the next three years. Our Board, staff and major stakeholders all had a voice in developing this plan. The final documents are quite extensive, but it boils down to three focus areas: housing, connection and leadership.

1. Housing
   a. We will maintain and expand the supportive services we provide through our Permanent Supportive Housing (PSH) program.
   b. We will consider adding a new type of housing – Rapid Rehousing.

2. Connection
   a. We will strengthen and improve our current services and the connections we make with our guests every day in the dining room.
   b. We will explore new ways to provide services to support our guests.

3. Leadership
   a. We will continue to be a voice for ending chronic homelessness.

Healthy Meals

Open every weekday since October 1983, Miriam’s Kitchen continues to be known as a place where homeless individuals can enjoy a fresh, nutritious meal, in a safe community of belonging. In FY2015 we experienced an increased demand for our services, as we served 79,107 meals to our homeless guests. Thanks to generous in-kind donors and community partners, we were able to meet this demand while lowering our food costs.

2015 was the year of lots of staff change in the kitchen. After 14 years in the kitchen, Steve Badt made a career change and left us at the end of July. We celebrated him in a variety of ways and are so grateful for the the wonderful farewell that you had for him too. Chef Emily took over the reins, but then she and her husband decided to return to the Midwest at the end of the year. So Chef Ciji Wagner now has the new title of Executive Chef and is putting together a new kitchen team. Tae Min Kim is Manager of Kitchen Operations and Volunteers, Cheryl Brown is the Executive Sous Chef, Jonathan Copeland is Assistant Sous Chef and we’re in the midst of hiring one more part-time Assistant Sous Chef. Through all of this transition, the quality of our meals has remained extremely high and volunteers have made all the difference In 2015, 1,809 volunteers filled 7,483 shifts, providing 15,237 hours of service.

Case Management

Our Case Management Program served 4,451 guests in FY2015. However, the real story is how our case managers became more purposeful and targeted in how they connect with our guests. In FY2015, our Case Managers worked toward more long-term permanent solutions for our guests. And that resulted in several dramatic life changes. Please refer to the update at the end of this report to see all that they achieved.

The Miriam’s Kitchen case management program is staffed by clinical social workers, case managers, an art therapist and a psychiatrist. These staff members are present at every meal as a resource for our guests to address their immediate, short-term and long-term needs. Our services include everything from providing clean clothing and assistance obtaining identification cards, to connecting them to mental health care and links to available housing. Through these services, and by being a constant presence in the dining room, we reinforce the trusting relationships that are the key to helping our guests.

Finally, we also offered Art Therapy, creative writing workshops, mental health support groups, resume assistance and yoga through Miriam’s Studio – all in an effort to build a community of belonging with our guests. And we’re finding that participation in Miriam’s Studio is a key part of helping guests move on to housing of their own.

Permanent Supportive Housing

In FY2015, our new Permanent Supportive Housing Program grew from 70 clients to 95, and we added two new staff members, so we now have a team of seven. The services we provide, offered through a contract with the Department of Human Services, allow our case managers to directly help clients maintain long-term housing and achieve the highest level of self-sufficiency possible.
Advocacy and Systems Change

Our citywide advocacy efforts continued in FY15. We helped pilot and institute best practices, and significantly assisted in writing and implementing the city's blueprint for ending chronic homelessness. As part of this effort we helped convene, lead and organize advocacy efforts throughout the city. And we were able to hire Jesse Rabinowitz as an Advocacy Specialist, bringing our advocacy team to four members.

Thanks to our collective efforts, Miriam's Kitchen and our partners in The Way Home campaign succeeded in building the public will to make homelessness a true priority among District residents and secured significant resources. Mayor Muriel Bowser and the DC Council approved a city budget (including the city's appropriation of $27 million dollars for homeless services) that made historic investments to end homelessness for over 1,200 individuals and 500 families. Miriam's Kitchen has also been a leader in the push to end Veteran Homelessness in Washington, DC – a goal we think we will achieve in the next few months.

Fundraising and Communications

In FY2015 we had a budget of 3.7 million. Despite aggressive fundraising and communications, we were unable to make our revenue projections for fiscal year 2015. In 2013, we built up reserves to help support our strategic expansion (about $2.2 million). The board approved an investment of $450,000 in funding from our reserves in 2013, and we had planned to draw down $400,000 in 2014, but didn't need to dip into reserves because fundraising exceeded our goals and we held expenses below budget. In 2015 instead of using $300,000 from reserves, we ended up allocating $393,356. In 2016 we are budgeting $200,000 from reserves and in 2017 we have planned on spending $100,000 as fundraising catches up with our planned expansion.

As a result of this revenue shortfall, in September we had to make the difficult decision to eliminate the position of Director of Communication. We are currently adjusting our staffing roles to keep telling the story of Miriam’s Kitchen. Then in December, Sara Gibson, our Chief Development Officer, followed her heart to take a new job and work in the area of early childhood education.

We were especially grateful to celebrate our Western Presbyterian Church supporters at our third annual MK Sunday in November 2015.

During this past year we were very excited to get a brand new website, thanks to our partnership with CRAFT. As we moved into FY16, we were thrilled to receive a $200,000 Bank of America Neighborhood Builder grant and to also have a terrific news story on ABCNews about our guest, Tony (pictured with White House Correspondent, Jon Karl).

All of us at Miriam’s Kitchen remain deeply grateful for the ongoing support from Western Presbyterian Church, our amazing volunteers, generous donors and dedicated staff.

Together, we are guiding people home.

Respectfully,

Scott Schenkelberg
